MOTION PASSED UNANIMOUSLY BY THE BOARD PRESENT

- B. A quasi-legislative rezoning of 1,670.41 acres in the Upper Blue Basin, 56.96 acres in the Lower Blue Basin, and 3.29 acres in the Snake River Basin to the Open Space zone district; all properties are in public ownership. (PLN19-004/Summit County Government) Upper Blue Basin, Lower Blue Basin and Snake River Basin (Planning).

Jessica Potter gave a brief digital presentation beginning with a background to explain the history of the County and Town's acquisition of property with high open space value. She stated that the purpose of the Open Space rezoning is to align the uses permitted within the zone district, add an additional layer of protection, and to allow open space uses - including a simpler process for trail construction. Ms. Potter then reviewed the proposed properties, using maps to illustrate the areas, the tracking of TDR neutral and receiving areas, and the criteria for approval.

Staff recommended approval of the proposed resolution including the 4 findings and 1 condition as listed in the staff report.

Commissioner Davidson opened and closed the hearing with no public comment.
